

7.3.1 Institutional Distinctiveness

Empowering Innovation through holistic training and skill development

The organization focuses on offering inexpensive excellence education to a diversified knowledge population, working on the morality of convenience, affordability, inclusivity and academic plasticity to care for young women in an harmonious environment with a mission to ensure their “Intellectual, Emotional, Psychological, Physical, Economic and Cultural well-being”

Intellectual well-being

- Offering competitive syllabi under all programmers.
- Incorporating Choice based credit System for Arts, Commerce and Science streams.
- Honing academic proficiency, non-scholastic skills and orientation towards research.
- Offering special programs for high achievers.
- Facilitating compatible learning method obloquies for slow learners.
- Grooming the personality and communication alskills through continuous assessment and motivation.

Emotional well-being

- Effective mentor-mentee system establishes associable and secure learning ambience.
- Constant supervision offered through Grievance and Counseling Committee.
- Regular weekly meetings by the mentor with the ward and monthly interaction with apparent, ensure the emotional well-being of every student.
- Resident scholars welfare is established through the close attention and care offered by mentors, wardens, hostel in-charge, class in-charge and support staff.
- Making the learners competent to break every barrier such as gender, social and cultural etc.

Psychological well-being

- Student’s active participation in the events such as union activities, cultural, sports, and academic and extra-curricular programmers brings out their latent talents and helps the identify their skills test groom a successful personality.
- Anti-social practices like ragging, discrimination of any kind are thoroughly restricted inside and outside the campus.

- A continuous support system is offered to all students.

Physical well-being

- The daily sports and games hour refreshes the students mentally and physically.
- Students develop sportsmanship, imbibe values, and gain physical stamina thereby becoming strong and healthy pillars of the society.
- Special Training at the college gymnasium helps sports students stay fit.
- Participation in Regional and National events secures their future in sports.

Economic well-being

- Placement training offered in the final semesters to every student warrants employability.
- Students' potential is aptly identified and they are properly channelized by offering effective career guidance.
- Entrepreneurial skills are inculcated in many courses under every programme.
- Schemes such as "Earn While You Learn" help students to be self-reliant.

Cultural well-being

- The unique legacy of the nation is being carried forward by the institutional practices such as celebrating all festivals.
- Annual cultural and youth feast celebrations.
- Providing many opportunities to students to demonstrate their talents, to learn new skills and to participate in socio cultural events.

PRINCIPAL
K.L.E. Society's
S.C.P. Arts, Science & D.D.S Commerce College
MAHALINGPUR-587312, Dist. Bagalkot.